

Sound insulation 81901.1021

Technical data

Net weight

EW M10-21

Elastic washers EW are used to decouple screw connections to avoid any kind of structure-borne sound. The polyurethane material Sylodyn® effectively isolates vibrations and have a long working period. In addition to the sound insulation, the elastic washers also electrically non-conductive and resistant to common oils and greases.